

Price of Outdoor Landscape Distribution Boxes

Article Overview

Outdoor landscape distribution boxes typically range from $30 to $300 depending on size, material, and features.

Price Range and Factors

- Small plastic or ABS boxes suitable for basic outdoor electrical connections or irrigation systems usually cost $30-$80. These often include a hinged cover, water-resistant enclosure, and internal mounting panel, as seen on Amazon .
- Medium to large metal or stainless steel boxes with higher durability, IP66/IP68 ratings, and multiple circuit capacity can range from $100-$300. These are often used for industrial or commercial outdoor applications and are available from suppliers like Home Depot, McMaster-Carr, and specialized manufacturers .
- Custom or specialized distribution boxes with advanced features such as knock-down cabinets, floor-standing designs, or CE/TUV certifications may exceed $300, depending on specifications and shipping .

Where to Buy

- Amazon: Offers a variety of small to medium outdoor electrical boxes with water-resistant features and internal mounting panels .
- Home Depot: Provides outdoor power distribution boxes with options for online purchase and in-store pickup, suitable for residential and light commercial use .
- Lowe's: Focuses on outdoor drainage and landscape distribution boxes, often for i...
